

Assessment

Questions

1. Based on your case examples, what communication tool would you use to inform other members of staff about yourself feeling uncomfortable in the house. What would be the advantages and disadvantages of this tool?
2. Describe the different steps of case discussions and explain why they are relevant in overcoming and preventing crisis situations.
3. Pick one of the case studies provided, what do you think of the reaction of the RYCW and what would you differently when you would develop your own action plan?
4. Name some of the factors that might have influenced the way you took action in a crisis situation you experienced yourself.
5. Briefly present the intervention plan you developed during the activities.

Please use the space below for your answers